

1. Fill in the verbs. Use past perfect.

- a) After I had eaten breakfast, I brushed my teeth.
- b) After I had brushed my teeth, I left the house.
- c) After I had left the house, I went to the restaurant to start work.
- d) After I had started work, a strange man came into the restaurant.
- e) After the man had sat down, he ordered something to eat.
- f) After I had served the meal, I gave him the bill.

4. Try to find a word from the vocabulary list in PB p. 194 -196 that fits in!

- a) He's our teacher. So he deserves respect.
- b) This book was printed in 2020. So it's the last edition.
- c) He works at a national park. He is a ranger.
- d) People killed elephants to get their ivory.
- e) Use the gate to get into the garden and don't climb over the fence.
- f) Before the film started they had shown a flashback to remember what had happened before.
- g) Everything you do has its consequence.
- h) He is not innocent. He is the murderer, so he's guilty.
- i) I hate war, because lots of people must die and buildings are destroyed.